Dear Mr. Greenfield:

It is with the deepest sorrow that I send you the enclosed letter from Spain informing us of the death of your son, Herman Greenfield. As you will see from the letter, his loss is deeply felt and deeply mourned by those he fought beside in Spain.

I know that there are no words that I can say which will be able to comfort your grief. There is only the thought for all of us of the heroic, costly and crucially important struggle now going on in Spain on which the whole future of our civilization depends and in which your son played his important part.

Very sincerely yours,

David McKelvy White
